

BUENOS AIRES – LA CANDELARIA ESTANCIA

DAY 1: BUENOS AIRES – A DAY SPENT AT ESTANCIA LA CANDELARIA

Arrival at Ezeiza Airport and transfer to Estancia La Candelaria.

It is recommended that the flight arrives on a Friday morning to fully enjoy the activities offered by the stay.

La Candelaria is a beautiful estancia characterized by the castle preserved since 1894 with its unique park, with one hundred hectares with more than two hundred and forty species of trees and shrubs, lagoon, statues, fountains and roundabouts designed by the famous French landscaper Carlos Thays, the same who gave life to the forests of Palermo and the Iguazu National Park.

This place offers a great variety of activities for every day, such as horseback riding, bicycles, sport courts tennis, volleyball, soccer, ping pong, board games, circuit for runners, open-air swimming pool in season, paths in the forest for those who want to walk and bike. We can also play golf on a course that is located a few kilometers from the Estancia.

There are other activities, depending on the days of the week. On Fridays we can choose yoga class, relaxation class with Tibetan bowls and menu with healthy options.

Dinner at the Estancia.

Overnight.

DAY 2: BUENOS AIRES – COOKING CLASS, HISTORICAL TALK TOUR AND FOLKLORE SHOW

Breakfast at the Estancia.

On Saturdays, we can participate in a cooking class with Argentinean empanadas.

After lunch, we can enjoy the folklore show.

The Estancia takes a guided tour of the Castle, reviewing the main landmarks in the history of La Candelaria and its secrets.

Dinner at the Estancia.
