

BUENOS AIRES – EL OMBÚ DE ARECO ESTANCIA

DAY 1: BUENOS AIRES – EL OMBÚ DE ARECO ESTANCIA

Arrival at Ezeiza Airport and transfer to Estancia El Ombú de Areco.

Flight must arrive during the morning to be able to fully enjoy the activities offered by the estancia.

This place has an Italian style quarter that Lieutenant General Pablo Richieri ordered to be built in 1880. The Ombú, preserves the shade that protected the first gauchos of the Pampa. The Argentinean national tree that gave its name to this estancia remains standing and is the center of gathering at the time of folklore.

After check-in (11:30 AM), we will have a lunch at 1:30 PM and guitar show with dance or demonstration of Indian dressage or troop show.

One of the attractions of this place, besides enjoying the immense field, is to enjoy the traditional Argentinean food, with full board:

- *Appetizer with empanadas and drinks (wine, beer, water with or without gas, soda, juice)
- *Lunch: asado criollo with 3 different types of salads, dessert and coffee. Drinks: half a bottle of wine per person, beer, water with or without gas, soft drinks, juices
- *Snack: coffee, tea, mate or soft drinks with quince and sweet potato cakes
- *Dinner: Starter, main course and dessert. Fixed menu (not a la carte). Drinks: half a bottle of wine per person, beer, water with or without gas, soft drinks, juices

This day would be ideal to relax and get acquainted with the Estancia.

Dinner at the Estancia.

Overnight.

DAY 2: BUENOS AIRES – ACTIVITIES & SHOWS AT EL OMBÚ

Breakfast at the Estancia.

We will have several activities and facilities to enjoy and relax all day.

After lunch, we will have the opportunity to enjoy another option of the shows that we did not choose the previous day (guitar show with dance or demonstration of Indian dressage or troop show).

El Ombú de Areco offers guided horseback rides within the 300 hectares of the Estancia, going through the different groups of cattle, where we can do local wildlife observation. The Estancia has horses for beginners as well as for experienced riders.

There are also sulky rides for those who do not wish to ride horses, as well as biking, hiking and bird watching.

During the stay, we can enjoy several facilities such as swimming pools, bicycles, games room with pool table, soccer and volleyball court, ping-pong, foosball, etc. In the game room there is a pool table and board games for children and adults.

Dinner at the Estancia.

Overnight.

DAY 3: BUENOS AIRES – A DAY SPENT AT EL OMBÚ

Breakfast at the Estancia.

After check-out (10 AM), we will enjoy the “A Day Spent At El Ombú”

This morning can be used to do pending short activities such as horse riding, bird watching, etc.

If the weather conditions are favorable, the lunch (the type of lunch is similar to the full board menu) will be served in the park, under the old trees from where the horses can be seen, located in the corral 100 meters away.

After lunch, we will have the opportunity to enjoy another option of the shows that we did not choose the day before (guitar show with dance or demonstration of Indian dressage or troop show).

The Estancia also offers optional shows not to be missed, based on the gaucho culture and folklore with dance, at an additional cost:

*Gaucho skills (carrera de sortija, cuadrera, demostración de pato, demostración con tropilla, and others)

*Folklore with live music and dance plus malambo show

Departure from the Estancia: 6 PM

El Ombú de Areco is an ideal retreat for a short quiet stay or an extended visit, as well as for business events, family celebrations, birthdays or weekend getaways.

Return to the Buenos Aires City from 7:45 PM.

Departure to Aeroparque or Ezeiza Airport.
